NORTH PLAINFIELD, NJ, UNITED STATES, January 14, 2026

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Commercial real estate services firm Levin Management Corporation (LMC) is opening 2026 with continued growth in its third-party management platform, expanding a longtime client relationship through two Central New Jersey shopping center management assignments totaling nearly 260,000 square feet: The Shoppes at North Brunswick in North Brunswick (effective January 2026) and Inman Grove Shopping Center in Edison (added in June 2025). The expanded assignments reflect the client's continued confidence in LMC's hands-on management approach and day-to-day operational oversight.

The Shoppes at North Brunswick, NJ

The ownership group has been an LMC client for 10 years. With these additions, LMC now provides management services for five properties totaling about 694,000 square feet for the client. The LMC-managed portfolio includes Somerset Shopping Plaza (Franklin Park, N.J.; 68,000 SF), Festival Plaza (Edison, N.J.; 173,000 SF), Oak Tree Center (Edison, N.J.; 193,000 SF), Inman Grove Shopping Center (Edison; 113,000 SF) and The Shoppes at North Brunswick (North Brunswick; 147,000 SF).

"This ownership is familiar with our capabilities in delivering high-quality commercial real estate services and wanted to bring that same level of consistency to these assets," said Joseph Lowry, LMC's senior vice president of acquisitions and business development. "Our team takes pride in protecting and enhancing value through strong property presentation, responsive tenant relations and disciplined operational oversight. We are pleased to build on the progress at Inman Grove and implement our management program at The Shoppes at North Brunswick as we begin 2026. Our focus is to enhance day-to-day performance while supporting long-term asset value.”
