

Jennifer Maddox of Future Ties Partners with Subaru to Host Cookies, Cocoa & Coats

Future Ties' annual Cookies, Cocoa & Coats event provides free winter coats for Chicago children through a community partnership with Subaru of Evergreen Park

CHICAGO, IL, UNITED STATES, January 14, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Jennifer Maddox, Founder and Executive Director of Future Ties, will host the organization's annual winter coat giveaway, Cookies, Cocoa & Coats, on Monday, January 19, 2026, from 12:00 PM to 3:00 PM at the Future Ties community facility located at 6330 South Martin Luther King Drive, Chicago, Illinois.

The annual event provides free winter coats to children while creating a warm, family-friendly experience that includes cookies, hot cocoa, and community engagement. This year's initiative is made possible through a partnership with Subaru of Evergreen Park, Illinois, reflecting a shared commitment to youth well-being and neighborhood support.

The event will take place on Martin Luther King Jr. Day, reinforcing Future Ties' commitment to service, community care, and support for families during the winter season.

Cookies, Cocoa & Coats is a signature Future Ties winter initiative that aligns with the organization's prevention-first, upstream approach to community impact, ensuring children and families have essential resources before winter conditions become a hardship.

"This event represents what's possible when community organizations and local businesses come together with intention," said Maddox. "Our goal is to make sure children feel warm, supported, and valued, not just during the winter months, but year-round."

Jennifer Maddox, Founder and Executive Director of Future Ties

Future Ties serves as a trusted community anchor on Chicago's South Side, delivering programs that focus on youth development, family stability, and long-term neighborhood resilience. The annual coat giveaway has become a meaningful winter tradition, drawing families, volunteers, and partners committed to proactive, community-centered solutions.

“

This event represents what's possible when community organizations and local businesses come together with intention”

Jennifer Maddox

The January 19 event is open to the community. Coats will be distributed while supplies last.

Event Details

- Event: Cookies, Cocoa & Coats
- Host: Future Ties

- Date: Monday, January 19, 2026 (Martin Luther King Jr. Day)
- Time: 12:00 PM – 3:00 PM
- Location: 6330 South Martin Luther King Drive, Chicago, IL
- Partner: Subaru of Evergreen Park
- Focus: Free winter coats for children and families

About Future Ties

Future Ties is a Chicago-based nonprofit organization dedicated to strengthening communities through prevention-focused initiatives that support youth development, family stability, and neighborhood well-being. Through strategic partnerships and direct community engagement, Future Ties works to address challenges before they escalate, creating sustainable pathways to opportunity.

Sharon Bell

Future Ties, NFP

+1 773-633-2950

info@futureties.org

Visit us on social media:

LinkedIn

Instagram

Facebook

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/883265271>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2026 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.