DALLAS, TX, UNITED STATES, January 15, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- NHuS3 Media and Plain Talkin' Straight Shootin' Productions today announced the successful completion of the feature film treatment for 16 Miles To Geronimo, written by acclaimed screenwriter Jonathan Murphy. The film is inspired by the true story surrounding the 1984 Geronimo Bank Murders in Oklahoma.

With the treatment now complete, the production officially moves into the screenplay development phase. Concurrently, negotiations are underway for director attachment and principal cast, marking a significant milestone in the film's production timeline.

16 Miles To Geronimo is being developed as a Texas-produced independent feature with an anticipated production budget of $3.5 million. Principal photography is scheduled to begin in the third quarter of 2026, with a targeted Spring 2027 release.

The project is executive produced by Andrew J. White and Jerry "J-Man" Joyner, both of whom bring extensive experience in storytelling, media production, and audience-driven content development.
