About Shieldwise

Shieldwise is developing the next generation of AI-powered threat-detection technology designed to protect schools, airports, and other public spaces through real-time, non-invasive screening. The Shieldwise system uses advanced AI algorithms, multi-sensor imaging, and optional smell-detection modules to identify weapons and other prohibited objects hidden under clothing or inside bags, enabling security teams to detect threats that traditional metal detectors or manual checks often miss.

By delivering fast, accurate, and discreet screening, Shieldwise aims to create safer environments without disrupting daily activities. The technology is built for scalable deployment across high-traffic public locations nationwide.
