PAHRUMP, NV, UNITED STATES, January 16, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Released January 15, 2026, on all major music platforms, "Don't Fall Between the Daylight" is a deeply moving single from John Michael Ferrari that speaks directly to those standing at life's most fragile crossroads. Written as a message of presence, empathy, and quiet strength, the song addresses moments of isolation and emotional darkness without judgment or dramatics. Instead, it offers a steady hand and a reminder that even in the space between night and morning — when hope can feel hardest to reach — light still exists. With its intimate tone and cinematic emotional pull, the song encourages listeners to hold on, to be seen, and to remember that their story is not over.
