Natural Woven Roman Shades in Landscape Taupe

In this Miami, Florida, nursery, Ford Window Treatments collaborated with Coldsnow Interiors to bring softness and warmth to a contemporary Buena Vista home designed for a growing family. Building on the home's use of natural materials and organic textures, Barbara Kramer selected Horizons Natural Woven Roman Shades in Landscape Taupe to introduce a grounded, tactile layer to the clean, modern space. Room-darkening lining ensured comfort and rest, a practical choice tailored to the needs of a nursery without sacrificing style. As part of a whole-home window treatment package where Horizons products were used throughout, this room stands out as a thoughtful example of how woven textures can shape the tone of a space. The finished nursery feels serene, balanced and beautifully connected to the home's overall design.

The nursery was part of a whole-home window treatment package that utilized Horizons products throughout the residence. Within that broader scope, the nursery stood out as a thoughtful example of how woven textures can shape the tone of a space, creating a calm and inviting environment. The Showcase judges recognized the finished room as serene, balanced, and beautifully connected to the home's overall design.

"This recognition reflects the care, collaboration, and attention to detail that go into every project we take on," said a representative from Ford Window Treatments. "Being selected as a finalist in the Horizons Design Showcase is an honor, and we're proud to see our work featured alongside so many talented professionals from across the field."

With more than 75 years of experience, Ford Window Treatments continues to deliver custom window treatment solutions that balance design, functionality, and craftsmanship for residential and commercial clients throughout South Florida.
