Eventrics has spent more than a decade orchestrating weddings steeped in South-Asian tradition. The woman-owned company's achievements include receiving The Knot's "Best of Weddings" award for eight consecutive years, induction into The Knot's Hall of Fame, and being named "Wedding Planner of the Year" by Luxury Travel Guide. Their team is widely recognized as an award-winning group of experienced wedding-planning and management experts who specialize in large-scale Indian and fusion weddings across Miami, Orlando, Palm Beach, and destinations worldwide. By adding BollyRhythm, Eventrics is expanding its holistic approach to weddings.

BollyRhythm: Modern Dance Meets Cultural Heritage

BollyRhythm is a virtual dance studio that helps users create unforgettable solo or group performances through online and mobile-friendly tutorials. The platform offers mirrored, step-by-step instructions and full performance videos with music, enabling learners to practice at their own pace and from any location. Founder and CEO Khusbu Gemmati created BollyRhythm after years of teaching dance and observing how busy schedules and dispersed families make traditional rehearsals difficult. “I love dance too much to see it become a source of stress or anxiety,” she explains on BollyRhythm’s site. She created the platform to make dance accessible and to preserve the joy and cultural connection that comes from performing Bollywood-inspired routines. BollyRhythm’s values focus on making dance accessible, empowering confidence in every performer and celebrating without stress.

FOR REAL, I DO.

One recent client shared, “I’m currently completing my MBA out of state, so when I saw BollyRhythm’s concept (and how much time it could save me) I instantly fell in love. I created the routine on your platform, shared it with my family, and everyone was able to practice on their own time. The final performance came out so well, and some of our cousins even learned the last segment during the Sangeet the night before.”

A Perfect Fit for Eventrics’ Vision

Brittany Cole, Founder and Creative Director of Eventrics Weddings, believes the partnership will enrich the guest experience for her clients. “Our celebrations are about honoring heritage while creating an atmosphere of pure joy and connection,” Cole said. “BollyRhythm’s on-demand tutorials mirror the way we operate—calm guidance, cultural respect, and meticulous preparation. We’re excited to offer our couples a seamless way to choreograph wedding dances that feel authentic and effortless.”

Khusbu Gemmati sees the collaboration as a continuation of BollyRhythm’s mission. “I founded BollyRhythm because I wanted to keep a special part of our culture alive in a modern, accessible way,” she said. “Partnering with Eventrics, a team that has been recognized by The Knot and Luxury Travel Guide for their work in South-Asian weddings, allows us to reach more couples who care about celebrating their roots. Together, we can ensure that families near and far can learn and perform dances that honor tradition and create lasting memories.”
