SANTA ANA, CA, UNITED STATES, January 20, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Celebrating the New Year by merging with Regal Court Reporting, Pantera Court Reporters is stepping into a new era. Now a Regal Company, Pantera Court Reporters can serve more of their distinguished clientele with the elevated quality and care they have appreciated for over two decades.

Recognizing that Regal Court Reporting shared the same steadfast core values and client-first philosophy that Pantera was equally known for, this alignment felt like a natural fit for both highly regarded, independently owned firms. Mary Pierce shared, "When I decided I was ready to transfer ownership/management of my agency, Pantera Court Reporters, after 24 years in business, I chose Regal Court Reporting as my successor because I knew intuitively it was a good fit, not just for me but for my clientele as well. I am confident that their services match my elevated standards as well as our agency's timely turnaround and professional ethics. The Regal Court Reporting staff is friendly, helpful, and highly competent." Additionally, "Having worked very closely with Stephanie Leslie through our mutual volunteer service with CalDRA, I know that she is a dedicated and highly capable court reporter with the highest level of integrity who will advocate for the profession and its licensed professionals for decades into the future," shared Pierce.
