

Jimi Hendrix's Live At Woodstock Arrives as a KiTalbum Ahead of the 2026 NAMM Show

The legendary 1969 performance arrives as a collectible KiTalbum to be previewed at the 2026 NAMM Show

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, January 21, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- One of the most enduring moments in rock history enters a new chapter as the music industry gathers for the 2026 NAMM Show. Live At Woodstock, the legendary performance by Jimi Hendrix that closed the Woodstock Music & Art Fair, is now available as a KiTalbum for the first time ever, reintroduced through a collectible physical-digital format designed to be seen, heard, and held.

Originally performed at 9 a.m. on August 18, 1969, Live At Woodstock captures Hendrix at a creative peak, leading his expanded band Gypsy Sun & Rainbows through a set that would become cultural shorthand for an era. The 16-track live album includes definitive performances of "Voodoo Child (Slight Return)," "Fire," "Purple Haze," and Hendrix's genre-redefining interpretation of "Star Spangled Banner," a moment that continues to echo across music, politics, and art.

In conjunction with the 2026 NAMM Show, Jimi Hendrix: Live At Woodstock (KiTalbum Edition) will be shared with a curated group of creators and industry partners throughout NAMM week via the NAMM Creator Lounge & Suites. KiTbetter will gift a limited quantity of KiTalbums as a preview of the format, sparking conversations around music ownership, collectible releases, and the evolving relationship between artists, fans, and physical media.

Now available worldwide, the KiTalbum transforms the historic live album into a tactile experience that unlocks a full digital world through the KiTplayer app on iOS and Android. Fans
