landmark acquisitions that reshaped the industry.

Vos is widely respected for her commitment to mentoring women and advancing inclusive leadership, emphasizing flexibility, trust and long-term career development.

As part of her recognition, Vos selected The International Network for Aid, Relief and Assistance, INARA, to receive a $5,000 donation supporting medical and mental health care for children affected by human-induced or natural disasters.

2026 Entrepreneurial Spirit Award Winner: Celine Halioua - Founder and CEO, Loyal

Celine Halioua is the founder and CEO of Loyal, a biotechnology company developing prescription medicines intended to support healthy lifespan in dogs. Since founding the company in 2020, she has led its scientific and strategic direction, building a multidisciplinary team of scientists, veterinarians and industry professionals. Under her leadership, Loyal has advanced multiple clinical programs and helped establish a novel regulatory pathway focused on aging-related indications in veterinary medicine.

Halioua emphasizes mentorship and the development of diverse teams, with women represented across scientific, technical and leadership roles within the company.

2026 High Flyer Award Winner: Laura Gustafson, MBA - Senior Director, Consumer Brand Experience, U.S. Pet Health, Elanco Animal Health

Laura Gustafson is a senior marketing and commercial leader at Elanco Animal Health, where she leads integrated consumer, digital commerce and brand experience strategies across the U.S. pet health portfolio. She is recognized for applying data-driven, omnichannel marketing approaches within the regulatory and scientific framework of animal health. Gustafson is also known for her commitment to mentorship, supporting early-career professionals and fostering collaborative, high-performing teams.

2026 Champion of Women in Animal Health Award Winner: Fabian Kausche, MS, DVM - Senior Executive Advisor and Board Member

Fabian Kausche is the inaugural recipient of the Champion of Women in Animal Health Award, which honors individuals who demonstrate sustained commitment to mentoring, sponsoring and advocating for women's advancement. Over a global career spanning more than three decades, he has held senior executive, advisory and board roles across animal health, consumer health and research organizations.

Colleagues and mentees cite Kausche for consistently advocating for advancement opportunities and fostering inclusive leadership environments grounded in empathy and accountability.
