Board Certification in Truck Accident Law from the National Board of Trial Advocacy (NBTA) is limited to lawyers who possess an enhanced level of skill and expertise in truck accident law and have demonstrated integrity and dedication to the interests of their clients. It is the highest, most stringent, and most reliable honor an attorney can achieve

To achieve board certification, an attorney must have substantial trial experience with truck accident cases, including handling hundreds of trucking depositions, arguing trucking-related motions in court, cross-examining trucking experts, and publishing trucking-related articles in legal periodicals. Lawyers must also pass a thorough and demanding written examination that tests their proficiency, knowledge, and experience in truck accident law.

Having achieved Board Certification in Truck Accident Law, Kemp is a member of a very small group of elite lawyers. He is one of only 87 lawyers throughout the entire U.S. to have Board Certification in Truck Accident Law. Kemp is also one of only two Michigan-based attorneys to have earned board-certification status. The NBTA estimates that only three percent (3%) of American lawyers are board certified in any area of law.
