

Ricky Smith Appointed to Head Aeronet San Diego

Industry veteran introduced as General Manager.

SAN DIEGO, CA, UNITED STATES, January 22, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Ricky Smith has been named General Manager of Aeronet Worldwide's San Diego station, and brings with him a background and approach that will help grow that operation.

Mr. Smith has 23 years of experience in the in the logistics and freight forwarding industry. He started his career in Illinois with Roadway Express, performing several management roles. A move to California opened opportunities to work for YRC Freight, R&L Carriers, American Cargoservice, then most recently at AIT Worldwide Logistics, where he was a station manager for their San Francisco and San Diego operations.

Mr. Smith is a great fit for Aeronet San Diego, as he has a proven ability to implement strategies that cultivate a motivated team culture, leading to outstanding results and enhanced morale. He possesses a level of expertise that includes logistical planning, operational efficiency, and effective communication with stakeholders.

He attended Indiana University Northwest, Purdue University Northwest, and San Diego Mesa College, and is a Certified Dangerous Goods Professional (CDGP).

Chief Operating Officer B.J. Rodgers is enthusiastic about the addition of Mr. Smith, stating, "We are excited to have Ricky join our San Diego team and look forward to the station taking a step forward under his leadership."
