SAN RAFAEL, CA, UNITED STATES, January 22, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- ECHOS Communications (<https://echoscomm.com>), a leading communications and marketing agency specializing in snow, outdoor and adjacent industries, today announces a strategic partnership with SEABA, a premier heli-ski operation based in Haines, Alaska. The partnership reinforces ECHOS' growing role as a trusted outdoor PR agency partner while supporting SEABA's mission to create meaningful access and visibility within the global snow industry.

As part of the collaboration, ECHOS Communications is providing strategic public relations, brand positioning, and industry communications support for SEABA, with a focus on elevating awareness of its heli-ski operations in Alaska. ECHOS supported the program's creation, development, strategic positioning and messaging to ensure strong relevance within the snow industry.

"SEABA embodies the values that define the snow industry: authenticity, respect for the mountains, safety, and community," said Robert Reedy, Founder and CEO of ECHOS Communications. "As an outdoor communications and marketing agency, our role is to help brands identify, hone and tell real stories that resonate.
