“

We're proud of our growth, but even more proud of the people behind it. Their voices say more about who we are as a company than any slogan ever could.”

Lee-Ann Prickett, CEO, President and Co-Founder of Experior

Group, Inc. USA has published a new Staff Testimonials page on its website, providing an authentic view into the company's rapidly growing, people-focused culture. The page showcases team members from across the organization sharing their personal experiences working at one of the fastest-expanding financial services companies in North America.

The testimonials highlight a consistent message across departments: Experior is a workplace where collaboration, purpose, and professional growth are deeply valued.

Team members describe an environment that values openness, learning, and genuine support. Employees from HR, contracting, technology, and management cite the same strengths: supportive leadership, strong teamwork, and a culture that recognizes and celebrates progress at every level.

“We're proud of our growth, but even more proud of the people behind it,” said Lee-Ann Prickett, Co-Founder and CEO. “Their voices say more about who we are as a company than any slogan ever could.”
