Speakers Include:

James V. Aidala, Senior Government Affairs Consultant, B&C, (<https://www.lawbc.com/people-james-v-aidala/>) is a critical ally for any client addressing chemical policy, legislative, and related issues. He has been intimately involved with TSCA and FIFRA legislative reauthorization and key regulatory matters for over four decades. Mr. Aidala brings extensive legislative experience on Capitol Hill and past experience as the senior official at EPA for pesticide and chemical regulation, and provides clients with vital insights into not only relevant current policies of EPA and sister agencies, but also the way these policies have been or are likely to be formulated to help clients more successfully address regulatory matters.

Richard E. Engler, Ph.D., Director of Chemistry, B&C, (<https://www.lawbc.com/people-richard-e-engler/>) is a 17-year veteran of EPA and is one of the most widely recognized experts on TSCA, with over 25 years' experience engaged in interpretation and implementation of this complicated yet foundational law for American innovation and productivity. He participated in thousands of TSCA substance reviews at EPA, as well as pre-notice and post-review meetings with submitters to resolve complex or difficult cases, and he draws upon this invaluable experience to assist B&C clients as they develop and commercialize novel chemistries.

Ryan N. Schmit, Of Counsel, B&C, (<https://www.lawbc.com/people-ryan-n-schmit/>) has substantial expertise and experience on TSCA, including more than 15 years in EPA's OCSPP. During his tenure at EPA, Mr. Schmit supported congressional efforts leading to the pivotal 2016 TSCA amendments and worked on the front lines of EPA's TSCA implementation efforts, including significant and precedent-setting policy matters; the establishment of TSCA procedural frameworks; new chemical premanufacture reviews; the prioritization, evaluation, and management of existing chemicals; TSCA-related litigation; and more. Mr. Schmit assists clients with understanding regulatory complexities and developing and defending robust compliance strategies.

Lynn L. Bergeson, Managing Partner, B&C, (<https://www.lawbc.com/people-lynn-l-bergeson/>) has earned an international reputation for her deep and expansive understanding of how regulatory programs pertain to nanotechnology, industrial biotechnology, synthetic biology, and other emerging transformative technologies. Ms. Bergeson counsels corporations, trade associations, and business consortia on a wide range of issues pertaining to chemical hazard, exposure and risk assessment, risk communication, minimizing legal liability, and evolving regulatory and policy matters. She served as chair of the American Bar Association (ABA) Section of Environment, Energy, and Resources and as chair of the International Bar Association (IBA) Agriculture and Food Section. She has served on the Board of Directors of the Environmental Law Institute (ELI), the NanoBusiness Commercialization Association, and is a recent past President of the Product Stewardship Society. Ms. Bergeson is a Fellow of the American College of Environmental Lawyers (ACOEL) and serves as a Regent and on its Executive Committee.
