“In Love Brain and Other Minefields, I illuminate the often hilarious struggle men face in trying to show the women in their lives how much they matter,” said Collenette. “These stories reflect our best attempts at love—efforts that are sometimes clumsy, sometimes heartfelt, and occasionally tragic. Readers say they recognize themselves in these moments, as if the stories are playful mirrors of their own lives.”

Notably, the collection has already earned critical recognition in the Pacific Sun Writers Competition, naming Collenette as the Award Winner, and from Writers' Digest, Honorable
