

Rye Strategic Partners' Advisor Concierge Network™ Announces Its Second Premier Partner, The Arch Group

HARRISON, NY, UNITED STATES, January 26, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Rye Strategic Partners, LLC (RSP), a New York-based leading strategic management advisory and capital formation firm, today announced a new strategic partnership through its Advisor Concierge Network™ with The Arch Group, a boutique M&A advisory firm. This strategic addition serves as a second-tier expansion for the network, designed to better serve Independent Insurance Agencies (IIAs) navigating the complexities of growth, perpetuation, and exit planning.

This partnership brings together RSP's deep industry relationships and strategic matchmaking capabilities with The Arch Group's specialized expertise in advising entrepreneurial business owners in the underserved lower middle market. The collaboration is particularly vital for the insurance and professional services sectors, where owners increasingly face consolidation pressures, succession challenges, and capital complexity.

Through RSP's Advisor Concierge Network™, RSP will introduce select independent insurance agencies to The Arch Group. This connection provides founders and principals with access to a seasoned M&A advisory partner that understands both the operational realities and emotional complexities of building and transitioning closely held businesses.

"Independent insurance agency valuations are at historic highs, creating a compelling opportunity for owners to realize value while simultaneously positioning their firms for long-term growth," said Mark Bronzo, Chief Strategist at Rye Strategic Partners and Head of the Advisor Concierge Network™. "This new partnership is designed to help independent agency owners evaluate strategic options without sacrificing their independence, culture, or
