

Think Global Awards Announces 2026 Shortlist

DUBLIN, DUBLIN, IRELAND, January 27, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Think Global Awards has announced the shortlist for the 2026 honors, the first under its newly refreshed, committee-led recognition model. The program, founded in 2018, has previously recognized global leaders and organizations, including Vodafone, Lonely Planet, TripAdvisor, Amnesty International, Google, and Greenpeace.

In 2025, Think Global Awards transitioned from an open-entry awards program to a curated honors system. The new format is designed to highlight prestige by recognizing three exceptional honorees each year. Honorees are selected by an internal committee based on achievements and measurable impact demonstrated over the previous 12 months.
