"Bringing Del Mar to West Palm Beach and the Nora District is an exciting next step in our expansion throughout South Florida. We are very eager to welcome this next class of talented, hospitality-driven professionals with a passion for service to be part of our growing team," said David Miller, President and COO of Cameron Mitchell Restaurants. "Cameron Mitchell Restaurants is known for investing in our people, and we're excited to extend that commitment to our new associates as we join the West Palm Beach community."

Del Mar West Palm Beach will span 12,000 square feet and feature a 9,595-square-foot interior and a roughly 2,400-square-foot outdoor terrace with a dedicated courtyard bar. The courtyard will offer nearly 100 seats, with the full restaurant accommodating more than 340 guests overall. Additional highlights of the space include a fully open kitchen, three private and flexible dining rooms, and two bars designed to encourage connection and entertainment.

Inspired by the coasts of Greece, Southern Spain, Morocco, France, Italy and Turkey, the seasonal made-from-scratch Del Mar menu highlights fresh seafood, artisanal cheeses, rich olive oils, bright produce and aromatic spice blends. Signature offerings include shareable dips and spreads, flatbreads, chilled shellfish, handcrafted cocktails and wood-fired specialties such as the dramatic Open Fire Roasted Shellfish Tower, designed for family-style dining. A lush, European-inspired design will complement the coastal setting, creating a lively yet elegant atmosphere.

The West Palm Beach opening follows the success of the brand's flagship location in Naples, along with expansions to Columbus, Ohio, and most recently Fort Lauderdale at the waterfront Auberge Beach Residences last November. This next restaurant further strengthens Cameron Mitchell Restaurants' growing presence in and commitment to South Florida's culinary lineup.
