

Meditative Animal Deals Royal Flush in Hearts with New Album Metaphysical Sherpa: Karmic Poker & Announces Digital Event

Dr. Duddha releases the official audio companion to his book Metaphysical Sherpa: Misunderstood Mystic (Karmic Poker Chronicles) & presents scientific research.

SPRINGVALE, ME, UNITED STATES, February 17, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Year of the Fire Horse has arrived today on Chinese New Year, and with it, the full release of the latest transmedia project from Nicholas David Mirisola, PhD. Known in the creative sphere as Meditative Animal and Dr. Duddha, Nick has officially released his new studio EP, Metaphysical Sherpa: Karmic Poker, on all major streaming platforms today.

The album release builds on the momentum of a high-profile kickoff this past weekend. On Valentine's Day (February 14), Mirisola premiered the music video for "Rise Up in Love \(Mr.Goodbarz Remix\)" on YouTube. The video, featuring collaborators Mr.Goodbarz and JBH, served as the "heart-centered" opening ceremony for what has become a 26-day celebration of science, spirit, and sound.

This aggressive rollout comes at a pivotal moment. Following the unexpected cancellation of the 2026 Science of Consciousness conference, where Dr. Mirisola was scheduled to present his scientific research, he executed a strategic pivot. Rather than allowing the cancellation to silence his findings, Mirisola launched this digital campaign to bring his work directly to the public. This initiative transforms a traditional academic presentation into a global, direct-to-audience multimedia event.

central metaphor of the project.

2. "Rise up in Love (Mr.Goodbarz Remix)" – The Valentine's Day anthem featuring Mr.Goodbarz and JBH, emphasizing love as the stabilizing frequency.
3. "Karma as a Natural Law" – A sonic bridge to Mirisola's academic work, exploring the physics of spiritual consequence.
4. "Holy Ghost Theory" – A track exploring the intersection of theology and quantum mechanics.
5. "Day to Day" – The hand's Ace, featuring Liam Kahos, grounding high-concept metaphysical themes in daily living.

The Digital Pivot: A New Format for Science

The cancellation of the 2026 Science of Consciousness conference has necessitated a new approach to disseminating Mirisola's research. On February 26, 2026, Mirisola will release his full hour-long video presentation, titled Metaphysical Sherpa: The Science of Consciousness, which was intended for the cancelled conference, on YouTube instead in its original, pristine 4K format.

This presentation stands as a unique hybrid of data and art. It is structured as an interlaced narrative, featuring seven forensic parapsychology science videos—detailing Mirisola's AI-driven research and methodologies—woven together with four Meditative Animal music videos. This structure allows the audience to digest complex information regarding incarnation fingerprints and computational metaphysics, while punctuating those intellectual segments with musical interludes that facilitate emotional integration.

Extended Science Rollout:

Following the premiere of the full hour-long presentation, Dr. Mirisola will release the seven individual science videos as standalone uploads on YouTube in the subsequent weeks, in addition to a science only version with only all seven science geared videos in one large format. This will allow for granular engagement with specific aspects of the forensic data and AI analysis.

The Rollout Schedule

To support this comprehensive release, Mirisola established a precise schedule of visual releases:

- February 14 (Valentine's Day): Premiere of "Rise Up in Love (Mr.Goodbarz Remix)" music video.
- February 17 (Chinese New Year / Today): Full Album Release + Premiere of "Karmic Poker" music video at 2:17 PM Eastern Standard Time.
