

Dr. Michael Torrence Headlines Speakers at USDLA Annual Distance Learning Conference

Motlow State Community College President to share his recipe for transforming the institution into a cutting-edge model of academic and workforce innovation.

WASHINGTON, FL, UNITED STATES, January 27, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The United States Distance Learning Association (USDLA) is proud to announce that Dr. Michael Torrence, President of Motlow State Community College will be the opening keynote speaker at its 39th annual global distance learning conference.

Dr. Torrence is a nationally recognized strategist, visionary, writer, and thought leader in higher education who has redefined institutional excellence through innovation, inclusion, and transformative leadership. Since becoming the seventh President of Motlow State Community College in May 2018, he has transformed the institution into an award-winning, cutting-edge model of academic and workforce innovation.

The event is being held in Cleveland, Ohio and the theme is "Universal Harmony: Exploring the Melodic Chords of Distance and Digital Learning." The host location will be the Cleveland Marriott Downtown at Key Tower from June 22 - 25th, 2026.

The USDLA National Conference has long been an event where leaders, educators, instructional designers and others mingle, discuss e-learning technology and learn from an audience broader than their own. Past attendees have enjoyed the in-person interactions, hands-on networking and personal relationships made with one another. All registrations include access to the the virtual conference, with sessions being held June 16th-17th, 2026.

This years selected tracks are in high demand as educators continue to navigate both remote and in-person learning strategies. These tracks include:

- The Digital AI Groove: Exploring Innovative Techniques and Technologies Education
- Backstage Pass to Policy: Navigating Governance and Regulation in Distance Education
- The Headliners: Distance and Digital Leadership on the Higher Education Mainstage
- Open Mic, Open Minds: Ensuring Quality, Flexibility, and Access in Online Learning
- The ID Set List: Curating Best Practices in Instructional Design
- Amplify Every Voice: Ensuring Accessibility and Inclusivity in Online Education
- The K-12 Playground: Curating Best Practices in the K-12 Space

Conference-Cleveland

ALL concurrent sessions are end-user led, and share best practices within the world of distance and digital learning. These presentations will be focused “power sessions” that eliminate fluff and get right into the important details on the topic. Offering more than 30 sessions, topics for 2026 include Reframing Bloom's for the Age of AI, ADA Compliance for Instructional Designers, Leveraging AI to Design Online Course Modules, AI Roleplay in the Classroom, Composing AI Policy for Responsible, Effective Digital Learning, Digital Harmony and more.

There are also several free pre and post-conference workshops with daily complimentary breakfast and lunch, making this a very cost effective event.

The member rate for a full conference pass is $495 while non-members pay $595 and receive a free annual membership.

There are also For-Profit and Not-For-Profit special discount bundles:

- Purchase 2 registrations, get the 3rd for free ($495 savings)
- Purchase 3 registrations, get the 4th and 5th for free ($990 savings)

Full conference pass and registration details can be found at the national conference registration website, <https://usdla.org/events/national-conference/>.

Featured Pre-conference Session

Dr. Robbie Melton, Associate Vice President – SMART Global Technology Innovation Strategist Presenting on "The Tools Shaping the World of Artificial Intelligence", Dr. Melton has published and presented globally on the impact and value of mobile devices for education and the workforce. Her study of the pedagogy and best teaching practices with mobile devices, quality standards for the utilization of mobile apps, and her creation of the Mobile App Education and Workforce Resource Center has resulted in numerous awards.

Rock & Roll Hall of Fame Event

Join us for an exclusive, private evening of exploring, heavy apps (enough for dinner) and cool beverages. We will kick everything off at 6:30 with shuttles taking attendees to the event from the hotel. Attendees will be given VIP passes (lanyards) with information on what is on each level of the hall. The R&R HOF staff will be our guides for the evening.

Sponsorship Opportunities

If you are tired of large shows with limited attendee engagement, our national conference is an intimate environment where partners are part of the production from the very start, demonstrating their gear as part of the conference production.

The dramatic growth of the distance learning industry makes our market attractive to a variety of technology, content, and service providers. Conference partners proudly support the distance education community and make lifelong contacts in the process.

Full details can be found on the sponsorship opportunities page, <https://usdla.org/usdla-sponsorships/>.

Pat Cassella

United States Distance Learning Association

+1 2039806928

pcassella@usdla.org

Visit us on social media:

LinkedIn

Facebook

X

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/886901354>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2026 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.