

Durham School Services and Glenbard Township High School District 87 Celebrate New Partnership and Successful Start-Up

DUPAGE COUNTY, IL, UNITED STATES, January 27, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Durham School Services and Glenbard Township High School District 87 have started the year on a strong note with their newly formed partnership and successful start to the semester – a testament to Durham’s 109 years of expertise and safe and reliable service. The partnership will extend through July of 2027, and Durham will service a total of fifty regular routes and nine special education routes for the school district.

Durham and its sister brands currently provide student transportation for fifteen communities across Illinois, and through this partnership with Glenbard Township High School District 87, are excited to be able to expand our transportation services to another community in Illinois. Further, through our company-wide community outreach program, Partners Beyond the Bus, our team looks forward to supporting the Glenbard community and its students beyond providing transportation through various community activities and events.

"We appreciate the partnership we've established with Durham School Services with an emergency contract for transportation for Glenbard Township High School District 87," said Jessica Santee,

Durham has worked closely with our district to address our needs, support drivers, and strengthen day-to-day operations. We value their responsiveness and commitment to our greater school community. "
