

Retire SMART Community Packs 300 Shoeboxes for Children Through Operation Christmas Child

Annual outreach event brings clients and the Retire SMART team together to support children in need around the world

OMAHA, NE, UNITED STATES, January 28, 2026

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Retire SMART completed its annual Operation Christmas Child outreach event in December 2025, partnering with Samaritan's Purse to pack 300 Christmas shoeboxes for children across the globe. The event brought together Retire SMART team members and clients for a day focused on service, generosity and community involvement.

Operation Christmas Child is a project from Samaritan's Purse, a nondenominational evangelical Christian organization that has provided spiritual and physical aid to people in need since 1970. Through this initiative, individuals and organizations filled shoeboxes with toys, school supplies, personal care items, and small gifts that were distributed to children in underprivileged communities worldwide.

With the support of participating clients, Retire SMART met its goal of packing 300 shoeboxes, each intended to bring encouragement and joy to children during the Christmas season and through the following year. The event emphasized hands-on participation with volunteers sorting, packing, and preparing boxes for international distribution.

Operation Christmas Child is one of Retire SMART's core community partnerships, and the firm participates in the program annually. The initiative stands as one example of how Retire SMART and its clients work together to support meaningful initiatives and contribute to a brighter future for individuals and families worldwide.
