Divorce With Dignity - Los Angeles

Divorce With Dignity – Los Angeles offers an alternative to traditional adversarial divorce litigation, focusing instead on clarity, organization, and dignity during one of life's most challenging transitions. Services are designed for families who want to reduce conflict, protect children, and maintain control over decision-making.

"Most people don't want a fight — they want clarity, stability, and a path forward that doesn't create more damage," said Vala Zarrabian, Esq. "My goal is to provide families with structure, calm guidance, and clear options, whether they need mediation to reach agreements, assistance preparing divorce paperwork, or a combined process that supports them from start to finish."

The Los Angeles practice offers three primary service paths:

1) Divorce Paperwork Support for individuals or couples who have already reached agreement and need accurate preparation of California divorce court forms based on their decisions

2) Divorce and Co-Parenting Mediation, where Vala serves as a neutral attorney mediator facilitating productive, structured discussions between the parties

Combined Mediation and Paperwork Services, allowing agreements reached in mediation to flow directly into court-ready documentation for a streamlined process

In addition to her legal training, Vala brings a deeply personal understanding to her work. As a parent raising a neurodivergent child, she is particularly attuned to the importance of stability, routines, and thoughtful planning for families with children. Her practice emphasizes child-centered agreements, clear communication structures, and long-term sustainability.

Divorce With Dignity was founded in 1996 by Cindy Elwell with the belief that divorce does not need to be destructive to be effective. Over nearly three decades, the organization has grown into a national network committed to respectful, non-adversarial family transitions. The Los Angeles office continues that legacy while addressing the unique needs of families in one of the nation's largest and most diverse metropolitan areas.
