“We are thrilled to partner with AmeriHealth to extend our reach and provide essential care to more individuals struggling with complex behavioral health challenges,” said George Mavrookas, CEO of Agape Behavioral Healthcare. “Navigating insurance coverage can often be a hurdle for families in crisis. This partnership ensures that AmeriHealth members have seamless access to our evidence-based, compassionate care model when they need it most.”

Agape Behavioral Healthcare is known for its "Hospitality to Healthcare" approach, blending clinical, evidence-based therapies -such as CBT, DBT, and EMDR- with holistic modalities to treat the whole person. The organization specializes in dual-diagnosis treatment, addressing co-occurring substance use and mental health disorders.

Key highlights of the partnership include:

Expanded Access: Immediate availability for AmeriHealth policyholders seeking treatment for substance use disorders and primary mental health conditions.

Comprehensive Care: Coverage extends across Agape's multi-disciplinary programs, including specialized tracks for trauma, anxiety, depression, and personality disorders.

Streamlined Admissions: dedicated insurance coordinators are available to verify benefits and guide families through the admissions process quickly.

AmeriHealth members seeking treatment or families looking to verify their benefits are encouraged to contact Agape Behavioral Healthcare directly.
