

Collaborative Professionals of Washington Join Divorce with Respect Week® 2026

OLYMPIA, WA, UNITED STATES, January 29, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Collaborative Professionals of Washington has announced plans to participate in Divorce With Respect Week® in 2026. Members of the group will offer free 30-minute divorce consultations from March 1 – 8, 2026. The consultations are an opportunity to educate couples about their options in a divorce including how they can keep their divorce out of court by using the Collaborative Divorce process.

Collaborative Divorce is a way to divorce in which the couple work together to resolve the divorce issues with the help of a team of divorce professionals including their own collaboratively trained attorney, a neutral divorce coach and a neutral financial professional.

Collaborative Professionals of Washington is a non-profit association of independent professionals from the fields of law, mental health, and finance committed to changing the adversarial approach to law. During Divorce with Respect Week®, individuals or couples can speak with Washington divorce professionals about their case for free.

Collaborative Practice California first launched Divorce with Respect Week® in 2021. It has since grown into a national movement to help couples facing divorce find a better way to untie the knot. To learn more about Divorce With Respect Week® and book a free consultation with a participating Washington Collaborative Divorce professional visit www.divorcewithrespectweek.com.
