

TORSH Talent Named Winner of Tech & Learning Awards of Excellence: Best of 2025

NEW ORLEANS, LA, UNITED STATES, February 2, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- TORSH is proud to announce that its flagship platform, TORSH Talent: A Comprehensive Coaching & Professional Learning Ecosystem, has been selected as a winner in the Tech & Learning Awards of Excellence: Best of 2025 within the Primary Education category.

The Best of 2025 Awards celebrate educational technology from the last 12 months that has excelled in supporting teachers, students, and education professionals in the classroom, for professional development, or general management of education resources. Judged by a panel of industry experts, winning an Award of Excellence is a showcase of products that are truly going above and beyond to contribute to the education sector.

The Tech & Learning editorial team shared that "The awards brought a huge number of high-quality entries. Our panel of industry experts judged the winning products to be those that were most impactful in helping schools improve teaching and learning during 2025".

"We are thrilled to receive this recognition for TORSH Talent," said Courtney Williams, CEO and Founder at TORSH. "As schools increasingly look for ways to provide sustained, high-quality professional development that actually impacts teacher performance, TORSH Talent provides the necessary infrastructure to make coaching and collaboration seamless, data-driven, and effective for primary educators."
