Vertikal6, a Rhode Island-based technology partner delivering enterprise-class IT, AI and digital solutions, is proud to announce that Brave River Solutions, A Vertikal6 Company, has been honored as a winner in the 17th Web Excellence Awards. Vertikal6's award-winning entry was recognized for excellence in web design and digital innovation, highlighting the company's commitment to building high-performing, scalable digital experiences for real businesses.

Our team approaches every website as a critical business asset, not just an online presence.”

Rick Norberg, CEO

“This recognition reinforces what our clients experience every day - that thoughtful design, strong performance, and long-term reliability matter,” said Rick Norberg, Founder and CEO of Vertikal6. “Our team approaches every website as a critical business asset, not just an online presence.”

Brave River Solutions, A Vertikal6 Company, brings years of experience delivering websites for organizations locally and nationally, allowing the team to move beyond trial-and-error and deliver solutions that are intentional, secure, and built to evolve. Unlike one-person web shops, Vertikal6 offers a full-service team spanning design, development, performance optimization, and ongoing support ensuring consistency, accountability, and long-term success.

The Web Excellence Awards celebrate outstanding achievement in web development and digital innovation, recognizing creative teams and organizations that push boundaries in design, usability, and performance. With global participation, the awards highlight work that sets new industry standards.

“Being named a Web Excellence Awards winner validates our belief that a website should actively support growth and credibility,” said Rick Norberg. “It motivates us to continue raising the bar for what business-driven digital experiences should deliver.”
