

Hago Energetics Selected as Qualified Hydrogen Supplier by First Public Hydrogen Authority

CAMARILLO, CA, UNITED STATES, January 30, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Hago Energetics Benefit Corporation announced today that it has been formally selected as a Qualified Hydrogen Supplier by the First Public Hydrogen Authority (FP2H) under Request for Proposals (RFP) No. 02-25 for Hydrogen Fuel Supply.

As a result of this selection, Hago Energetics has been added to FP2H's Qualified Supplier List, enabling the company to participate in future hydrogen fuel supply engagements supporting the development of a reliable, scalable, and sustainable hydrogen network in California.

FP2H is a public agency dedicated to advancing hydrogen infrastructure, workforce development, and clean energy deployment throughout the state. Hago Energetics' qualification reflects its technical expertise, project readiness, and focus on innovative waste-to-hydrogen pathways that reduce greenhouse gas emissions while creating local economic opportunities.

"We are honored to be recognized by the First Public Hydrogen Authority as a qualified hydrogen supplier," said Wilson Hago, CEO of Hago Energetics. "This milestone underscores our commitment to delivering practical, community-centered hydrogen solutions and supporting California's clean energy goals."

The qualification further strengthens Hago Energetics' role in public-sector hydrogen initiatives and complements its ongoing work with regional and state partners to advance circular economy and clean fuel projects.
