Complimentary kayaks, paddleboards, water bikes, fishing and snorkeling equipment are available for guests at the resort’s new Island Club, which is also home to a palapashaded pickleball court and beach games. Beverages and light fare may be enjoyed under a palapa or umbrella-covered beach seating.

The Spa’s treatment rooms and couples’ massage room have windows to catch breezes from the Caribbean Sea, offer spa therapies inspired by local Maya culture and traditions and a sound lounge experience.

The Grill presents Belizean-influenced cuisine prepared with sustainably sourced, local ingredients from farm and sea. Favorite cocktails and new creations made with fresh ingredients are found at The Cocktail and Ice Bar.

The resort's piloted boats are available throughout the day for complimentary five-minute transportation to Placencia Village, brimming with colorful boutiques, locally owned cafes and cantinas.

About Prana Maya Island Resort
Located on Placencia Caye, a secluded island less than five minutes from the Placencia peninsula in southeastern Belize, Prana Maya is an intimate retreat and a portal to the iconic adventures of Belize. Complementing the resort's refined décor, works by Belizean artisans, hand-carved doors of indigenous wood, and artistic elements whisper an homage to the Maya culture. The oceanfront Inn and Villas offer sweeping views of sea and sky. The Grill features Belizean-influenced cuisine, sustainably sourced from land and sea; The Cocktail and Ice Bar presents inventive cocktails. The Spa at Prana Maya is home to therapies for mind, body and spirit, and yoga. Headquarters for water sports and pickleball, The Island Club is also the scene for afternoon beverages and light fare. Belize is Central America's only English-language-speaking country, accepts U.S. currency and has direct flights arriving daily from major U.S. airports.
