

From Destiny's Child 'Survivor' to Real-Life Survivor: Beyoncé's Father Dr. Mathew Knowles Wins Humanitarian Honor

Time4Sharing.org recognizes Dr. Mathew Knowles for his advocacy and leadership in support of children and early cancer awareness.

ORLANDO, FL, UNITED STATES, February 13, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Time 4 Sharing Mission I'M Possible Corp. (time4sharing.org), a global children's charity, announced that Ambassador Dr. Mathew Knowles, cancer survivor, outspoken advocate for early cancer testing, and father of recording artist Beyoncé Knowles-Carter, has received the organization's Humanitarian Leadership Lighthouse Award for exemplary, selfless leadership.

The Leadership Lighthouse Award recognizes leaders who inspire others through service and courage, especially those facing extreme adversity. Time 4 Sharing Mission I'M Possible Corp. salutes Dr. Knowles for using his platform to encourage early testing and screenings, a message the organization says is helping save lives.

"We applaud his leadership and exemplary servant heart," said Coach M J Tolan, co-founder of Time 4 Sharing Mission I'M Possible Events.

Dr. Knowles stands as a beacon of hope for adults and children facing adversity.”
