

Z Gallerie Celebrates a Triumphant Return to Los Angeles on Beverly Boulevard

Excitement builds as the beloved home décor brand reconnects with its roots in the heart of LA's design district

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, February 3, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- After years of anticipation, Z Gallerie is thrilled to announce its return to Los Angeles, with a brand-new store located on the iconic Beverly Boulevard. This reopening signifies more than just a new location; it embodies a heartfelt reunion with a community that has been unwavering in the message: bring Z Gallerie back to LA!

California has been the birthplace of Z Gallerie's creative spirit since it was founded in Sherman Oaks in 1979. The original 200,000 SQFT headquarters in Gardena stands as a beacon of the brand's commitment to the state and its roots in design innovation. Los Angeles, a hub of art, fashion, and style, has always inspired Z Gallerie, making Beverly Boulevard the perfect setting to reestablish its iconic presence in a neighborhood renowned for high-end interior design and premium home furnishings.

This store isn't just a market expansion, it's a commitment to the community that built this brand. ”

Scarlett Fan, Z Gallerie CEO

“Returning to Los Angeles is deeply personal for us,” said Scarlett Fan, Z Gallerie CEO. “Our customers have been asking for Z Gallerie to come home for years, and we've listened. This store isn't just a market expansion, it's a commitment to the community that built this brand. We're honoring decades of trust, loyalty, and shared history by delivering the style, quality, and inspiration our customers deserve.”

The launch will introduce an elevated shopping experience and the Spring/Summer 2026 collections, featuring an exclusive first look at 350 new SKUs, encompassing bedroom, dining, living, decor, lighting, and art. Consumers can look forward to iconic designs that have transformed interiors for decades, as well as innovative new pieces reflecting the latest trends. Z Gallerie brings back the glamour and style the market has been missing.

“The team has been hard at work developing the product line, keeping the iconic look and feel while elevating the materials used, construction quality and customer experience online and in store,” said Milan Rousset, Director Sales/Marketing.

Returning customers will rejoice, while new customers will discover the timeless aesthetic that defines Z Gallerie. This exciting reopening is not merely about rekindling past experiences but also about embracing new opportunities for creativity and connection.

“Over the past two years, we’ve focused on shaping and strengthening our product. Now, our attention is on elevating the in-store shopping experience,” Milan added. “We invite the Los Angeles community to visit us at our Beverly Boulevard and Robertson location and experience Z Gallerie in a more immersive, design-led environment that reflects our commitment to California and the customers who continue to shape our journey.”

Z Gallerie is poised to usher in a new era of style, elegance, and innovative design, reconnecting with the vibrant culture of Los Angeles while paying tribute to its enduring legacy.
