

Redpath Welcomes Mike Dunkle as a Transaction Advisory Services Partner

ST. PAUL, MN, UNITED STATES, February 3, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Redpath and Company is pleased to welcome Mike Dunkle as a Partner in the firm's Transaction Advisory practice. Focused primarily on the southeastern part of the US, Dunkle advises clients across the transaction lifecycle, including quality of earnings and closing support.

Mike Dunkle Joins Redpath and Company

Dunkle was most recently a Managing Director at an international business advisory firm. His expertise includes financial due diligence for buy-side and sell-side transactions, working capital analysis and negotiation, seller readiness, financial modeling, and closing process support. He also supported corporate and private equity transactions involving owner-operator exits, mid-market divestitures, and acquisitions across a wide array of deal sizes.

His deep experience working with CFOs, investment banks, and private equity firms enhances our transaction advisory capabilities and expands the value we deliver to clients.”
