“

With partners active in every major region of the world, logistics is a daily operational reality for our clients.”

Stephen Crystal - Founder & CEO, SCCG

today announced the launch of SCCG Logistics, a new SCCG company providing end-to-end logistics and operational support to partners across gaming, entertainment, and other high-growth industries where precision, coordination, and execution are essential.

Built on more than 35 years of experience in the global gaming industry, SCCG Logistics extends SCCG's deep brick-and-mortar operational expertise and long-standing relationships both within and beyond gaming. With 130+ active partners worldwide and teams operating across North America, Latin America, Europe, Africa, the Middle East, and Asia-Pacific, SCCG maintains an active, on-the-ground presence in every major region of the world—enabling consistent support for complex, cross-border logistics and operational needs.

While gaming remains a core focus, SCCG Logistics was intentionally designed to support a wide range of industries that depend on flawless execution. Within gaming, this includes coordinating the transportation and on-site delivery of slot machines and gaming equipment for conferences, exhibitions, and promotional activations, as well as supporting tournament operations and live events. Beyond gaming, the same execution-first approach is applied to fulfillment, supply chain coordination, live events, and large-scale operational support for businesses navigating launches, expansions, and ongoing operations.

SCCG Logistics delivers full-lifecycle support—from planning and vendor coordination through execution, on-site operations, and post-execution optimization. The company's focus is on reducing operational friction, improving efficiency, and ensuring reliable delivery in environments where timing and accountability matter.

The company is led by a seasoned logistics leadership team with decades of combined experience at top global logistics and operations firms. This team brings hands-on expertise managing multi-vendor environments, time-sensitive operations, and complex supply chains, reinforcing SCCG's reputation for execution and follow-through.

"Our global footprint demands real execution, not just planning," said Stephen Crystal, Founder and CEO of SCCG. "With partners active in every major region of the world, logistics is a daily operational reality for our clients. SCCG Logistics gives them a dedicated team focused on end-to-end execution—whether that means moving gaming equipment across borders, supporting major industry events, or helping high-growth businesses scale without operational breakdowns."

By combining disciplined planning with reliable coordination and hands-on execution, SCCG Logistics enables partners to operate confidently across markets while minimizing risk and operational complexity.
