

John Lakin and Friends Bring 'Redemption Song' to Harbison Theatre

Harbison Theatre will present John Lakin and Friends: Redemption Song, a powerful evening of gospel music celebrating freedom, hope and redemption.

IRMO, SC, UNITED STATES, February 3, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Harbison Theatre at Midlands Technical College will present John Lakin and Friends: Redemption Song, a powerful evening of gospel music celebrating freedom, hope and redemption, on Saturday, Feb. 7, 2026, at 7:30 p.m.

The performance features John Lakin, a national gospel recording artist and celebrated praise and worship leader, alongside an ensemble of established and independent vocalists. Redemption Song brings together heartfelt hymns, spirituals and gospel favorites that have supported audiences through life's challenges and uplifted communities with the message of perseverance and faith.

Lakin is widely known throughout the Southeast for his work as a worship leader and Gospel ambassador. His weekly John Lakin and Friends television program airs every Sunday on WACH FOX 57, where he shares his passion for gospel music and provides a platform for artists across the region to showcase their talents. Over the years, Lakin has built a reputation for assembling rich vocal harmonies and spirited performances rooted in traditional gospel while embracing diverse musical influences.

"We are thrilled to welcome John Lakin and Friends back to Harbison Theatre," said Kristin Cobb, executive director of Harbison Theatre. "Their performances embody the deep emotional power of gospel music and the unifying spirit it brings to our community. Redemption Song is not only a concert but a celebration of hope, resilience and shared experience, and we know audiences will leave lifted and inspired."

The concert will be led by music director Djuwaun Diggs. Highlights include Roy Ladson and Revelation, with Ladson continuing a family legacy as the brother of renowned guitarist Steve Ladson. Additional performers include Derrick Bull, Zanobia Joell, Laura Wilson, Kimberly Sumter, Jerme Johnson, Talysha Jones, Lamar Wilson and Britny Holliday, with emerging talent showcased through the Young Friends ensemble, featuring Kailyn Jamison, Prince Jacobs (PJ), Alana Inez, KJ Lemon, Juliet Nelson and Zaccheaus Brown.
