

Clearwater Sea-Blues Festival Returns to Coachman Park February 28–March 1, 2026

Free, family-friendly waterfront festival features live blues music, fresh seafood, craft beer, local vendors, and Captain's Krewe experiences

CLEARWATER, FL, UNITED STATES, February 3, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Clearwater's signature waterfront blues celebration, the Clearwater Sea-Blues Festival, returns to Coachman Park on Saturday, February 28, and Sunday, March 1, 2026, bringing two days of live blues music, fresh seafood, craft beer and wine, local vendors, and family-friendly entertainment to the heart of downtown Clearwater.

Hosted by the City of Clearwater with support from Visit St. Pete/Clearwater as the official tourism partner, the annual festival transforms Coachman Park into a vibrant open-air destination. Guests can enjoy nationally recognized and regional blues artists, seafood tastings, craft beer and wine, and a curated selection of local market and artisan vendors, all set against the scenic waterfront backdrop of downtown Clearwater.

"The Clearwater Sea-Blues Festival is a celebration of music, food, and community in one of our city's most beautiful public spaces," said Kris Koch, Senior Manager for Special Events for the City of Clearwater. "Each year, this event brings people together to enjoy world-class blues performances, incredible local flavors, and the welcoming spirit that defines Clearwater."

Throughout the weekend, guests can enjoy two full days of outdoor entertainment along the waterfront, with continuous music programming and opportunities to explore the festival's food, beverage, and market offerings. Live music anchors the event with a full schedule of performances from national and regional blues artists. All artists and performance times are subject to change:
