

Phoenix Medical Assistant School Announces Spring Opening of New Mesa Campus

Phoenix Medical Assistant School will open a new Mesa campus this spring, offering affordable, hands-on medical assistant training through a local partnership.

MESA, AZ, UNITED STATES, February 5, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Phoenix Medical Assistant School is proud to announce the upcoming spring opening of its new Mesa campus, expanding access to career-focused medical assistant education for students across Arizona's East Valley. The program is designed to provide an accelerated, hands-on pathway into healthcare through practical, real-world training.

Kendra Bradshaw, Program Manager, added, "This program is designed to give students meaningful, real-world experience from the start. We're excited to bring this opportunity to Mesa and help students take the next step toward rewarding healthcare careers."

The new campus will be located at 6553 E Baywood Ave, Suite 103, Mesa, AZ, and will offer a 18-week medical assistant program that blends online coursework with in-person lab training and clinical experience inside an active healthcare practice. Graduates will be prepared to pursue certification and begin entry-level roles in clinics, physician offices, and outpatient healthcare settings.

Phoenix Medical Assistant School has partnered with Texan Allergy LLC (Aspire Allergy & Sinus – Mesa) to provide students with hands-on training in a real clinical environment. Through this partnership, students will gain experience in patient intake, allergy testing support, clinical procedures, and daily healthcare operations under the guidance of experienced professionals.

"Opening campuses in fast-growing communities like Mesa allows us to meet healthcare workforce demand while expanding access to affordable education," said Chris Lofton, CEO of Zollege. "Our hands-on training model ensures students graduate with the skills and confidence employers are looking for."
