

Norman Grant Honored With the 2026 Five Star Wealth Manager Award

OVERLAND PARK, KS, UNITED STATES, February 5, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Integrated Equity Management Partners \(IEMP\) is proud to announce that Norman D. Grant, Managing Director of Grant Capital and a Partner of Integrated Equity Management Partners, has been named a recipient of the 2026 Five Star Wealth Manager Award in the Kansas City market. This recognition marks Norman's second consecutive year receiving this distinguished honor.

The Five Star Wealth Manager Award is a respected distinction within the financial services industry, recognizing wealth managers who demonstrate a strong commitment to client service, professional excellence, and industry knowledge. Norman's continued recognition reflects his dedication to helping clients navigate complex financial decisions and pursue long-term financial goals through thoughtful, personalized strategies.

"We are pleased to see Norman recognized for this well-earned achievement," said Cammy Smith, CEO & President of Integrated Equity Management. "Norman's leadership, experience, and client-first mindset exemplify the values of the IEM Partners network. His continued recognition reinforces the trust he has built with clients and peers alike."

Under Norman's leadership, Grant Capital has remained a valued partner within the Integrated Equity Management Partners network, delivering customized wealth management strategies designed to align with clients' unique financial objectives. His work continues to contribute to the strength and collaborative culture of IEMP.

“It is truly an honor to be recognized again with the Five Star Wealth Manager Award,” said Norman Grant. “This recognition reflects the trust of our clients and the dedication of our team. I am grateful for the support of Integrated Equity Management Partners and remain committed to helping individuals and families plan confidently for their financial future.”
