FRB's commitment to innovative, client-focused solutions aligns perfectly with my approach to guiding business owners and investors through complex transactions.”

Av Sinensky

Known for his practical, business-minded approach, Av partners closely with clients to help them navigate high-stakes transactions while remaining focused on long-term growth, risk management, and operational realities. His ability to translate complex legal concepts into clear, actionable advice has made him a trusted advisor to entrepreneurs and established businesses alike.

"I am thrilled to join Falcon Rappaport & Berkman and collaborate with such a talented team dedicated to client success," said Av Sinensky. "FRB's commitment to innovative, client-focused solutions aligns perfectly with my approach to guiding business owners and investors through complex transactions."

In addition to his transactional practice, Av is a respected thought leader on the topics of M&A and corporate law. He regularly writes articles featured in Long Island Business News, USLAW Magazine, and the New York Law Journal, and has spoken at events sponsored by the New York City Bar Association, Small Business Expo, and numerous professional organizations.

"We are thrilled to have Av join the FRB team," said FRB Co-Managing Partner Kenneth Falcon. "His diligence, perspective and practical approach will strengthen our capabilities and help us continue to provide outstanding results for our clients."

Av's addition further strengthens our corporate services and reinforces the firm's commitment to delivering sophisticated, client-focused counsel to businesses throughout Long Island and beyond.
