

AMMWECC condemns Pak mosque terror attack

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES, February 6, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- American Muslim & Multifaith Women's Empowerment Council (AMMWECC) Vehemently Condemns Terrorist Attack on Shia Mosque in Pakistan; Warns of Threat to Pakistan's Economic Gains and Leadership in the Muslim World

The American Muslim & Multifaith Women's Empowerment Council (AMMWECC) vehemently condemns the brutal terrorist attack on a Shia mosque in Pakistan, an appalling act of sectarian violence that targets innocent worshippers and seeks to destabilize the nation from within.

This attack comes at a critical moment. AMMWECC recently convened and hosted an event for the visiting International Religious Freedom (IRF) Roundtable delegation from Pakistan, representing both majority and minority religious leaders, who traveled to the United States to engage with policymakers and civil society on advancing religious freedom, interfaith harmony, and democratic values. The delegation's presence underscored Pakistan's growing engagement with the global community and its commitment—shared by many courageous leaders within the country—to counter extremism and promote coexistence.

"This terrorist attack is not only an assault on Pakistan's Shia community; it is a direct attack on Pakistan's economic gains, its stability, and its aspirations for growth and foreign investment," AMMWECC stated. "It is also a deliberate attempt to undermine Pakistan's emerging role in the Muslim world as an upcoming leader and responsible Muslim-majority nation."

AMMWECC emphasizes that countering terrorism requires confronting its ideological roots. It is imperative to scrutinize what is being preached from pulpits and taught in schools and madrasas. Where hate, intolerance, or sectarian incitement exist, they must be immediately halted. Educational and religious institutions must never be used as platforms to legitimize violence against fellow citizens.

The Council calls on Pakistani authorities to crack down on every terrorist cell, dismantle extremist networks, and implement comprehensive curriculum reforms that promote pluralism, civic responsibility, and respect for human life. AMMWEC further urges policymakers and religious authorities to consider standardizing khutbas, ensuring sermons reinforce unity, constitutional values, and rejection of all forms of extremism.

AMMWEC stands in solidarity with Pakistan's Shia community and with all Pakistanis—Sunni, Shia, Christian, Hindu, Sikh, and others—who envision a peaceful, prosperous Pakistan rooted in dignity, tolerance, and justice. Terrorism must not be allowed to derail Pakistan's progress or its rightful place as a constructive leader within the Muslim world and the global community.
