The same-day program leverages Essilor’s Vision-R 800 refraction system, which enables smooth, continuous power changes and 0.01D step precision to help clinicians and patients converge on clearer, more confident prescriptions. Within the practice, comprehensive diagnostics—including OCT imaging, visual field analysis, and no-puff iCare tonometry—inform the prescription and support early detection of eye disease. French Optical’s on-site lab stocks a wide range of single-vision lenses and can cut lenses to frame in approximately one hour for most prescriptions. Premium options from partners such as ZEISS, Essilor/Varilux, and Shamir are available with next-day turnaround.

Why It Matters

Demand for timely prescription eyewear has grown alongside increased screen exposure and the need for task-specific vision solutions. Recent reports indicate that a majority of U.S. employees experience symptoms associated with digital eye strain, with many noting productivity impacts. Optimizing eye doctor prescriptions and lens designs (e.g., office progressives, anti-reflective, and blue-filter coatings) can support day-long comfort at the desk and on the go.

How It Works

- Comprehensive exam with precision diagnostics: OCT/fundus imaging, visual fields, slit lamp, tonometry (iCare), and advanced refraction with Vision®R 800.
- On-site cutting for most single-vision prescriptions; many patients can leave with finished glasses the same day, often in about one hour.
- Premium lens choices from ZEISS, Essilor/Varilux, and Shamir for task-specific comfort; next-day fulfillment available for many premium configurations.
- Confidence policies include a six-month prescription guarantee and a two-year warranty on premium lenses and frames.

Program Highlights

- Same-day glasses: Many single-vision prescriptions can be cut in approximately one hour.
- Exam technology: Vision®R 800 refraction, iCare IC100 tonometry, ZEISS CIRRUS photo 600 OCT, and Humphrey Field Analyzer.
- Lens partners: ZEISS, Essilor/Varilux, Shamir, and more.
- Selection: 3,000+ designer frames in stock for same-day try-on.
