

World Cities Summit to convene leaders from across government, industry and academia in Singapore in June 2026

SINGAPORE, February 9, 2026

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Cities are rapidly scaling up climate resilient solutions, deploying cutting-edge technology and advancing sustainable infrastructure. How can world leaders, industry players and academia contribute and thrive in this quick pace of urban change and development, playing a part in building liveable and sustainable cities for the future?

The 10th edition of the World Cities Summit (WCS) will be held in Singapore from 14 to 16 June 2026. This biennial Summit convenes thought leaders and experts from government, academia and industry to address urban challenges, share integrated solutions and forge new partnerships. Themed “Liveable and Sustainable Cities: ACT Now!”, WCS 2026 will explore the need to “Accelerate, Collaborate, and Transform – to actively shape a more liveable future.

The Summit presents a rich and diverse programme, comprising high-level leadership plenaries, in-depth discussion and special convening sessions, and roundtables, across six thematic tracks: Cities for People, Resilient & Regenerative Cities, Smart Cities, Financing of Cities, Future “Cities” and the WRLDCTY Connections Stage.

Other “key highlights of the Summit include the WCS Mayors Forum, the Lee Kuan Yew World City Prize Lecture, the WCS Young Leaders Symposium” and “the Science of Cities Symposium” – each designed to provide a platform for the exchange of dialogue and discourse, build potential collaborations that address issues in urban liveability and sustainability, foster leadership for the future and to celebrate urban excellence.
