NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, February 11, 2026

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Cevidica Securities Group LLC and Cevidica Investment Partners LLC (together, "Cevidica"), a private investment firm, today announced their official launch as an integrated platform combining securities brokerage, investment banking, and private equity advisory services for institutional clients and qualified investors. Cevidica's securities business focuses mainly on structured credit and other fixed-income securities, while its investment advisory arm manages private equity strategies.

"Our goal is to sit at the intersection of structured credit and private markets investing, offering clients a cohesive solution for originating, structuring, and trading differentiated credit opportunities," said Behzad Taufiq, CEO of Cevidica.

Cevidica's multi-entity structure is designed to deliver institutional-grade origination, execution, and asset management across the credit and private markets spectrum. By aligning a broker-dealer, investment bank, and private equity platform under one brand, the firm seeks to provide cohesive access to origination, structuring, distribution, and ongoing portfolio management across structured and alternative credit markets.

Cevidica Securities Group LLC will operate as the securities brokerage and investment banking division, providing execution, capital raising, and strategic advisory services to issuers, sponsors, and institutional investors and clients. The group will focus on structured credit, including asset-backed and other securitized products, and will offer distribution, secondary trading, and placement services through its agency and underwriting teams.

Cevidica Investment Partners LLC will serve as the investment advisory arm, managing private equity strategies for institutional and qualified investors seeking differentiated private markets exposure. The business will emphasize partnership-oriented capital, aligning interests with companies and borrowers through a long-term value-creation approach.
