

With Intelligence and Wilshire launch enhanced 'Navigator', a platform streamlining private markets manager engagement

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, February 12, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- With Intelligence by S&P Global, a leading provider of data and intelligence for alternative and private markets, and Wilshire, a global financial services firm providing investment solutions to institutional investors and intermediaries worldwide, today announced the launch of an enhanced 'Navigator,' a platform designed to streamline private markets manager engagement.

Navigator is a streamlined portal that combines automation, data intelligence, and institutional reach to give private markets managers a faster way to share secure and accurate fund information, putting them in control of their data, enabling real-time updates and access to Wilshire, while connecting them with the right investors at the right point in their fundraising cycle. Built by With Intelligence, the platform integrates with their own Investor Solutions Market Maps to deliver live, data-driven matching between investors and funds that fit their allocation goals.

Cornelia Andersson, Head of With Intelligence, said, "This enhanced version of Navigator leverages our data and technology to give fund managers a direct, transparent route to Wilshire. Navigator exemplifies our mission to empower smarter, faster capital allocation in private markets."

"The combination of Wilshire's and With Intelligence's expertise further bolsters Wilshire's private market research and technology capabilities, ensuring we have the most robust data set from which to source compelling opportunities for our clients", said Mark Perry, Head of Private Market Manager Research at Wilshire.

Navigator exemplifies our mission to empower smarter, faster capital allocation in private markets.”
