

Faulty Towers The Dining Experience Brings Immersive Comedy to Denver

Denver get ready for a night where dinner service goes spectacularly wrong.

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, February 11, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Faulty Towers The Dining Experience the globally celebrated immersive comedy inspired by the iconic BBC television series lands in Denver this spring for a strictly limited engagement.

Faulty Towers The Dining Experience

Presented by Starvox Entertainment the show places guests right inside the action as Basil Sybil and Manuel serve a three course meal alongside two hours of fast paced improvisation physical comedy and glorious chaos. No two performances are ever the same and audience participation is very much part of the fun.

Opening May 26, 2026 at the Embassy Suites Hotel downtown, Denver welcomes this highly anticipated production for a limited run. Tickets are on sale now!

Presented by Starvox Entertainment, this is no ordinary dinner out. Guests are seated in the middle of the action as the iconic trio serves up a three-course meal with a side of mayhem. Expect the unexpected – from flying bread rolls to missing table reservations – as service goes delightfully sideways in true Faulty style.

First created in Brisbane in 1997 Faulty Towers The Dining Experience has become a worldwide phenomenon touring to more than 43 countries welcoming over one million guests and enjoying a long running residency in London's West End. Critics have hailed it as immersive theatre at its most entertaining with laughter from the first course to the last.

Perfect for theatre lovers comedy fans and anyone looking for a truly memorable night out this award winning experience continues to delight audiences around the world.

Devised by Alison Pollard-Mansergh and Andrew Foreman, Faulty Towers The Dining Experience is a loving tribute to the BBC's classic TV comedy. A 5-star critically acclaimed production, the show is a world-renowned immersive phenomenon that has been smashing records and collecting accolades since the very first performance at the Ridges Hotel in Brisbane on 24 April 1997. The unmissable production has been touring globally across 43 countries and has welcomed well over 1 million guests. 2023 marked the celebration of 15 years touring Europe, and in 2024 the show celebrated 27 years of touring worldwide while also entering its 12th year of its highly successful West End residency in London.
