strengthening its ecosystem of trusted solution providers serving the property & casualty insurance industry.

Founded in 1996, Damco Solutions is a global technology partner to insurers, MGAs, and program administrators, offering robust Insurance Management Systems and curated services designed to support efficiency, scalability, and long-term growth. With three decades of experience, Damco Solutions delivers tech-integrated solutions to organizations ranging from startups to Fortune 500 companies, supported by a global delivery network.

“We’re excited to partner with AAIS, a trusted authority in standardized insurance forms, ratings, and advisory services,” said Mohit Gupta, CEO of Damco Solutions. “By combining AAIS’s regulatory-ready forms and industry expertise with Damco’s insurance product offerings and implementation capabilities, we are helping insurers and MGAs simplify compliance, launch new programs faster, and operate with greater agility. This collaboration reflects our focus on turning industry complexity into practical, executable solutions.”

“Damco Solutions brings deep insurance domain expertise and a strong track record of delivering modern technology solutions that support operational excellence across the insurance value chain,” said Ross Fisher, Interim CEO of AAIS. “Their global reach and customer-first approach make them a natural fit for the AAIS Partner Program as we continue to build a collaborative ecosystem that helps our Members succeed in an evolving market.”

As an AAIS Partner, Damco Solutions will engage with the AAIS Community to support insurers navigating operational, regulatory, and technology-driven change. This collaboration reinforces AAIS's commitment to connecting Member carriers and industry stakeholders with trusted solution providers that support innovation, compliance, and growth across the insurance value chain.
