

Tothemoon Presents Its New Affiliate Program

HONG KONG, HONG KONG, February 12, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Tothemoon, a leading crypto trading platform, is proud to announce its new Affiliate Program, designed to enable creators, influencers, and web partners to earn high crypto-based commissions by referring users to the Tothemoon ecosystem.

Affiliates can earn up to 70% commission on trading and crypto card activity from every referred user's account, with lifetime earnings turning each referral into long-term, recurring income. They also receive 10% from every other affiliate they bring into the program, creating even more earning potential.

"We built the Tothemoon Affiliate Program to reward our strong community and strategic partners," said a Tothemoon spokesperson. "By offering high commission rates and ongoing lifetime revenue, we're creating a partnership ecosystem that benefits both creators and the wider crypto audience."

The program is open to a wide range of partners, including content creators, influencers, bloggers, and crypto community leaders. Once approved, affiliates receive a unique referral link and access to tracking tools that make it easy to monitor performance and earnings.

Joining and earning is straightforward:

1. Apply through the Tothemoon affiliate page
2. Share your referral link with your audience
3. Earn commissions automatically when referred users trade

All commissions are calculated transparently and paid daily in cryptocurrency, ensuring a smooth experience for partners worldwide.

Unlike traditional affiliate programs, Tothemoon's model focuses on lifetime revenue, allowing affiliates to continue earning as long as their referred users remain active on the platform. This approach reflects Tothemoon's commitment to sustainable partnerships rather than short-term promotions.
