Eric Cornidez, MD, MBA of Pain Institute of Southern Arizona has been reviewed and approved based on merit by AZ Top Docs for 2025.

TUCSON, AZ, UNITED STATES, February 13, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Eric Cornidez, MD, MBA of Pain Institute of Southern Arizona has been reviewed and approved based on merit by AZ Top Docs for 2025. Dr. Cornidez is a Diplomate of the American Board of Anesthesiology, a Fellowship-Trained Interventional Pain Specialist, and is Board Certified in both Anesthesiology and Pain Medicine. Proudly serving the greater Tucson region, he brings exceptional expertise to his role as a managing partner at the Pain Institute of Southern Arizona (PISA), which operates across Tucson and San Tan Valley. His leadership helps ensure that patients throughout Southern Arizona have access to top-tier pain management.

Christine Willour

A Tucson native, Dr. Cornidez has long been driven by a commitment to elevate the level of care available in his hometown. After earning his medical degree from Stanford University, he returned to Tucson for his surgical internship at the University of Arizona. He then advanced his training in anesthesiology at the Mayo Clinic in Scottsdale, becoming the clinic’s first Chief Resident in Anesthesiology and specializing in Interventional Pain Management. Today, Dr. Cornidez remains at the forefront of his field, regularly serving as a consultant, investigator, and instructor on cutting-edge pain management modalities, including neuromodulation.

As Chief Medical Officer and managing partner at PISA, Dr. Cornidez helps guide the largest and most respected pain management center in Southern Arizona. His dedication to expanding his leadership capabilities led him to complete the Executive MBA Program at the University of Arizona's Eller College of Business. Widely recognized for his clinical skill, Dr. Cornidez is considered among the top pain physicians in the nation, and his compassionate, team-centered leadership inspires excellence throughout the organization.

"Dr. Cornidez provides exceptional care and a genuine connection with his patients, fostering positive patient experiences that make a meaningful impact in their lives." says Christine Willour, the Marketing Director and Provider Liaison of Pain Institute of Southern Arizona.

Dr. Cornidez's commitment extends far beyond clinical practice. He serves as a Clinical Assistant Professor at the University of Arizona, sits on the executive board of the Tucson Metro Chamber, and serves as a Deacon at Catalina Foothills Church. He is actively engaged with Corazon Ministries and contributes his expertise to professional organizations such as the Pacific Spine and Pain Society and the Arizona Society of Interventional Pain Physicians.

His service and leadership have earned him numerous accolades, including the Outstanding Community Service Award from the U.S. Department of Justice, the 40 Under 40 Achievement Award, the Tucson Hispanic Chamber of Commerce's 2019 Businessman of the Year, and most recently, 2025 Father of the Year / Father's Day Council Tucson Honoree. Through his unwavering dedication to patient care, professional advancement, and community service, Dr. Cornidez continues to shape the future of pain management while making a lasting difference throughout Southern Arizona.
