New development includes dedicated pages for prospective clients in the Accounting and Financial Services industries. These pages highlight Waterdog's IT and cybersecurity expertise for financial and accounting firms, notably their ability to facilitate SEC and IRS compliance. Other new and expanded pages include a comprehensive Industries overview and a new Cybersecurity Risk Review page featuring an integrated form for organizations interested in evaluating their current technology and cybersecurity posture.

Users can explore Waterdog's 4D Process (Discover, Design, Deliver, and Defend) through interactive elements that clearly explain each step of the company's structured IT strategy. New "Our Approach" and "Why Make the Switch" pages reinforce what IT Without the Drama truly means for growing businesses.
