

African Adventure Specialists Launches 2026 Departures for 9 Day Classic Tanzania Safari

African Adventure announces its 2026 departures for the 9 Days Classic Tanzania Safari, a journey through Tanzania's celebrated wildlife destinations

PALM BEACH, FL, UNITED STATES, February 16, 2026 /EINPresswire.com/ -- African Adventure Specialists has announced the official release of its 2026 departure dates for the highly sought after 9 Days Classic Tanzania Safari, a signature journey through Tanzania's most celebrated wildlife destinations. Operating throughout the entire year of 2026, the program offers travelers an expertly curated experience across Serengeti, Ngorongoro, Lake Manyara, Tarangire, and Arusha.

The itinerary has been designed to showcase the best of Tanzania's northern safari circuit, combining exceptional wildlife encounters with premium accommodations and the expertise of African Adventure Specialists' professional driver guides.

A Comprehensive Wildlife Journey

The safari begins in Arusha, where guests are welcomed at Kilimanjaro International Airport and transferred to the Four Points by Sheraton Arusha for a relaxing start.

From there, African Adventure Specialists guides travelers through a series of world renowned parks:

- Tarangire National Park – Famous for its baobab studded landscapes and large elephant herds,

Serengeti and Balloon Safari

guests enjoy two days of immersive game drives.

- Lake Manyara National Park – A compact but diverse ecosystem known for tree climbing lions, flamingos, and lush forests.
- Serengeti National Park – Tanzania’s most iconic wildlife sanctuary, offering sweeping plains, big cats, and year round wildlife activity.
- Ngorongoro Crater – A UNESCO World Heritage Site and home to one of the highest concentrations of wildlife in Africa, including the Big Five.

Accommodations include Tarangire Simba Lodge, Acacia Farm Lodge, and Kubu Kubu Tented Lodge, each selected for comfort, location, and service quality.
